KRUGGEL LAWTON EARNS G400 STATUS

(South Bend/Elkhart) The American Institute of CPAs has identified Kruggel Lawton & Company as one of the 500 largest firms in the United States out of 44,000 in the nation.

"We are pleased to be recognized as one of the 500 largest firms in the nation," said Kevin Kruggel, chief operating partner. "This distinction recognizes our growth in the profession and in our community. We started as a one person practice in 1956 and have grown to a 50+ person firm with two offices."

The AICPA works closely with the 100 largest firms in the United States, the Major Firms Group. It is their goal to do likewise with the next 400 largest firms. The Group of 400 (or G400) is comprised of the next 400 largest firms in the nation, of which Kruggel, Lawton & Company is included. The firms that make up the G400 range from having 21 – 90 CPAs in their firm and have annual revenues of $3 million to $28 million.

With the profession facing complex national and international issues, the G400 will provide Kruggel Lawton with direct access to leaders at the AICPA and in the accounting profession thereby enhancing the ability to stay informed and involved in the regulatory, legislative and standards-setting landscape for accounting matters.

With offices in South Bend and Elkhart, Kruggel, Lawton & Company, LLC is a full-service accounting and business consultation firm offering audit and accounting services, tax consulting, estate planning, business valuation, small business accounting services, and executive searches. Kruggel Lawton also offers national and international resources as an independent member of the BDO Seidman Alliance.
