

Health Care Reform: What Does It Mean for Your Business? A Panel Discussion

Friday, June 25
7:45 – 10:00 a.m.
South Bend Marriott Hotel Ballroom
Cost: $25/Chamber members
$45 nonmembers

Continental Breakfast Included

The Chamber of Commerce of St. Joseph County, with co-sponsor Lake Michigan Mailers, will present an important session for members to hear multi-faceted perspectives on the new Health Care Reform Legislation. The act calls for mandates, new taxes, and penalties, and presents challenges and opportunities for employers. Benefit plans will need to be reviewed and changed as parts of the act will be implemented over the next several years. Know the impact on your business.

Grant Black, assistant professor of economics with IU South Bend, will open the program, providing background on the act. A panel discussion will follow, offering input from an insurance representative, tax accountant and attorneys. Panelists include: Tim Leman, president, Gibson Insurance Group; Dan Smogor, partner, Kruggel Lawton and Company, LLC, CPAs; and Janilyn Daub, partner, Labor and Employment Department, Barnes & Thornburg, LLP; and Laura Seng, associate, Health Care Department, Barnes & Thornburg, LLP.
