(South Bend/Elkhart) Kruggel, Lawton & Company, LLC CPAs is pleased to announce that Margene L. Zink has passed all parts of the CPA exam and has been licensed as a certified professional accountant. She has also been promoted to manager within the firm.

Zink has been with Kruggel, Lawton & Company since graduating from Goshen College 2002. In her new role as manager, she will oversee audit, review, and compilation engagements in a variety of industries including manufacturing, construction, wholesale distribution, service, and not-for-profit organizations.

Zink is the former Margene L. Murdent and is a native of Tolono, Illinois. She earned a basketball scholarship to Goshen College where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree with a background in accounting.

The Uniform CPA Examination measures professional competence and helps to establish the CPA license as evidence of professional qualification. The examination is a 14-hour computer-based test (CBT) with four sections: Auditing & Attestation, Financial Accounting & Reporting, Regulation, and Business Environment & Concepts.

Kruggel, Lawton & Company, LLC is a full-service accounting and business consultation firm specializing in audit and accounting services, estate planning, tax consulting, and business and human resources consulting with offices located in South Bend and in Elkhart.
